

Errata sheet

For the consultation document titled:

Enhancing consumer protection, reducing regulatory restrictions: will-writing, probate and estate administration activities. A consultation document about the LSB's provisional recommendations on the regulatory approach to will-writing, probate and estate administration activities as part of statutory sections 24 and 26 investigations

Paragraph	Page	Error	Date
14	8	In the first bullet point, replace “consumer education” with “consumer information”. This corrects an error in the executive summary that is inconsistent with our intended meaning as set out in the text at paragraphs 123 and 124 - 127 of the main paper.	17 May 2012
Question 10	63 (and Annex 1)	Amend question as follows: “Do you agree that the s190 provision should be extended to explicitly cover authorised persons in relation to will-writing estate administration activities as well as probate activities following any extension to the list of reserved legal activities to the wider administration of the estate? Do you think that will-writing should be included in the s190 provisions should will-writing be reserved. What do you think that the benefits and risks would be?” This corrects a drafting error.	6 June 2012
n/a	Cover Pages	Replace “views on our approach are welcomed by Wednesday 16 July 2012” with “views on our approach are welcomed by Monday 16 July 2012” on the cover pages of both the consultation document and the impact assessment and market picture document.	28 June 2012

		This corrects a drafting error. The consultation closes at 5pm on 16 July as stated at paragraph 215, Section 11 (How to respond) of the consultation document and on the Open Consultations page of the LSB's web-site. Because of the high potential for confusion the error has been corrected on the documents themselves.
