Introduction

1. Between 16 July 2014 and 13 August 2014, the Legal Services Board (the Board) conducted a consultation¹ exercise inviting comments on a proposed recommendation and order under section 69 of the Legal Services Act 2007 (the Act). The purpose of the order is to modify the functions of the Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys (CIPA) and the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys (ITMA).
2. CIPA and ITMA are approved regulators under the the Act. In December 2013, the Board made a recommendation to the Lord Chancellor² that both CIPA and ITMA be designated as licensing authorities. This recommendation was accepted by the Lord Chancellor in March 2014 and an order making such a designation is expected to be made at the end of 2014.
3. All regulatory functions of CIPA and ITMA are delegated to the Intellectual Property Regulation Board (IPReg).
4. This paper sets out the results of that consultation and the Board's decision.

Background

5. Section 69 of the Act, allows the Lord Chancellor, on the recommendation of the LSB, to make an order to modify, or make other provision relating to, the functions of an approved regulator or any other body other than the Board³. This can include modifying provisions made by or under any enactment, instrument or document⁴.
6. Any order made by the Lord Chancellor under section 69 of the Act must be made by statutory instrument⁵ and this must be through the affirmative procedure⁶, i.e. approved by both the House of Commons and the House of Lords, to become law.
7. Section 70 of the Act sets out the procedural requirements relating to a recommendation under section 69. Section 70(2) requires that before making a recommendation to the Lord Chancellor, the Board publishes a draft of the proposed recommendation and the proposed draft order.

http://www.legalservicesboard.org.uk/what_we_do/consultations/open/pdf/20140716_IPREG_s69_CP.pdf

² Under section 80 of the Act

Section 70(1) of the Act requires that the recommendation may only be made under section 69 with the consent of the approved regulator.

Consultation

8. The consultation invited representations on a proposed draft recommendation and proposed draft order that, if given effect, would modify the functions of the CIPA and ITMA. The modifications relate to the powers of CIPA and ITMA when acting as either an approved regulator or a licensing authority (if either or both are designated as such) as follows:

- Allow for the making of regulations requiring registered bodies to have a Head of Legal Practice (HoLP) and a Head of Finance and Administration (HoFA)
- Allow for appeals on decisions made by the regulatory boards (to which all regulatory functions have been delegated) to be made to the First Tier Tribunal (FTT) or the High Court (including providing for such appeals to be final and orders as to payments of costs)
- Allow for the making of regulations to require the payment of investigation costs
- Allow for notices, warnings or reprimands relating to any breach of the terms of a licensed body's licence to be noted against any record
- Allow for indemnification and compensation arrangements, individually and jointly
- Allow for the making of regulations for disciplinary arrangements, including financial penalties; disqualification; disqualified employees; provision of information and documents; payment of investigation costs; and notices, warning and reprimands
- Granting CIPA and ITMA, when acting as approved regulators, intervention powers that are consistent with those that will be granted automatically if each is designated as a licensing authority

3 s69(1) and s69(2) of the Act

4 s(69)(6)of the Act

5 s204(1) of the Act

6 s206(4)(h)of the Act

- Requiring the making of regulations for the handling of client money.
9. A key outcome of the proposed modifications is that when exercising its delegated regulatory functions, IPReg would have the same range of powers whether acting in the capacity as an approved regulator or a licensing authority.
 10. Section 70(3) requires that the draft order is accompanied by a notice which states that representations about the proposals may be made to the LSB within a specified period. Representations were invited, to be made by 5pm on 13 August 2014.

Outcome of consultation

11. No representations were received on the consultation paper.

Changes to the draft Order since consultation

12. After the consultation was completed, and in accordance with its usual process, the Ministry of Justice sought pre-clearance of the order from the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments.
13. As a consequence of that review a number of minor drafting amendments were made to the order. Those amendments are noted in the summary table below:

Page 2, Schedules, fourth paragraph	"...instrument" has replaced "order" .
Throughout	Replaced "capacity" with "role" when referring to CIPA or ITMA powers as a licensing authority
Schedules 2 and 4, paragraph 6 in each	Removal of unnecessary duplicative paragraph which stated "where a registered person (or representative of a registered person) is unable to comply with a notice given to a person [to provide information or documentation], the person must give CIPA/ITMA a notice to that effect" . This situation is already covered in another paragraph in the same sections

Schedule 4, Part 1, paragraph 1(1)	Pre-ambule has been added: “In the circumstances specified in regulations made under sub-paragraph (4),...” Part 2, heading for paragraph 11, “Power to make joint indemnification and compensation arrangements with ITMA” “ITMA” replaced with “CIPA” as it is CIPA that ITMA must make the arrangements with
Schedule 4, Part 1, paragraph 5(2)	replacement of “CIPA” with “ITMA”
Schedule 4, Part 2, paragraph 11	In the heading, replacement of “ITMA” with “CIPA”

14. In addition there were a number of very minor typographical corrections made from the version consulted on which are not covered in this table. We have also not included changes to the Explanatory Memorandum, as this is not part of the order itself.

The Board’s decision

15. Having considered the outcome to the consultation and the changes made to the order in the final clearance process, on 16 October the Board decided that it should proceed with the recommendation to the Lord Chancellor that the section 69 order be made.
16. The text of the final recommendation that will be made to the Lord Chancellor and the draft order that will be attached to it are at Annex A.

Impact assessment

17. Included in the consultation paper for comment was a draft impact assessment about which no comments were received in the consultation. After the consultation closed, there was further work on the impact assessment in order for it to be submitted to the Ministry of Justice Chief Economist for final approval. The final version approved by the Chief Economist will be published by the Ministry of Justice and referred to in the order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order modifies the functions of the Chartered Institute of Patent Attorneys (CIPA) and the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys (ITMA) in respect of their regulatory arrangements as approved regulators under the Legal Services Act 2007 (“LSA 2007”).

The regulation of legal services in England and Wales is governed by the LSA 2007. Under the Act only a person who is authorised or who is exempt from the requirement to be authorised may carry on a reserved legal activity (s.12 LSA 2007). Authorisation can be given only by approved regulators and, in relation to Alternative Business Structures or ‘ABS’ (described as licensable bodies in the LSA 2007), takes the form of licensing. An approved regulator may only authorise an ABS if it has been designated by the Lord Chancellor as a licensing authority (Part 5 and Schedule 10 LSA 2007).

Approved regulators regulate the activities of persons that they authorise by means of regulatory arrangements which are approved by the Legal Services Board. In relation to ABS these arrangements take the form of licensing rules (Schedule 11 LSA 2007). CIPA and ITMA are both approved regulators. Together they carry out their regulatory arrangements under the title of the Intellectual Property Regulator (IPReg).

Part 1 makes provision modifying or otherwise setting out the scope of the powers exercisable by CIPA both in its role as an approved regulator under the Legal Services Act 2007 (see Articles 3 to 5) and in its role as a licensing authority (see Articles 6 to 8). Article 9 introduces Schedules 1 and 2 which make further provision about regulatory arrangements that CIPA may make. These relate to the exercise of powers by CIPA in both these roles. The sorts of powers dealt with in the order relate to requirements for authorised bodies to appoint heads of finance and legal practice, disciplinary measures that may be imposed on authorised persons and arrangements for compensation and indemnification of authorised persons.

Part 2 and Schedules 3 and 4 make equivalent provision for ITMA.

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector can be found at www.legislation.gov.uk or obtained from the Head of Legal Services Policy, Law and Access to Justice Group, Ministry of Justice, 102 Petty France, London, SW1H 9AJ.
