- 2.2 The insurance may provide that if a sum in excess of the Limit of Cover has to be paid in order to dispose of any Claim, the Insurer's liability in respect of Defence Costs shall be in the same proportion as the Limit of Cover bears to the sum paid to dispose of the Claim. In the event of the Insurer having already indemnified the Insured in respect of Defence Costs, the Insurer shall be entitled to recover from the Insured such proportion of them as may exceed that proportion of the sum paid in order to dispose of the Claim as is represented by the Limit of Cover.
- 2.3 The insurance may provide that if a Claim becomes the subject of proceedings before any court or tribunal in the United States or Canada and is resolved (whether by judgment, settlement or otherwise) in accordance with the law of such jurisdiction, any Defence Costs covered under paragraph 2.1(ii) above shall be included within and not payable in addition to the Limit of Cover.

4 AVOIDANCE, REPUDIATION, RESCISSION AND REIMBURSEMENT

- 4.1 The insurance must provide that, save in the circumstances set out in paragraphs 4.2 to 4.4 below, the Insurer shall not be entitled to cancel, avoid, repudiate or rescind any insurance or any liability thereunder to the Insured or to claim damages against the Insured on any grounds whatsoever, including misrepresentation, non-disclosure, or breach of condition or duty.

4.2 If an Insured

- (i) has fraudulently misrepresented or fraudulently failed to disclose any material fact, or
- (ii) notifies any Claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent, the insurance may provide the Insurer shall be entitled to claim damages and/or to avoid the insurance and/or to refuse to indemnify the Insured. In such event the Insurer may in its absolute discretion, notwithstanding any such avoidance of the insurance or refusal to indemnify, satisfy all or any part of any Claim made against the Insured responsible for such fraud (including the claimant's costs) by paying the same to the claimant. In such circumstances, the Insurer shall be entitled to recover any amount so paid from the Insured responsible for such fraud.

4.3 Where any misrepresentation or non-disclosure that does not otherwise entitle the Insurer to avoid the insurance has resulted in the Insurer effecting the insurance for a lower consideration than would have been the case if the correct and full facts had been disclosed, the insurance may provide that the Insured shall pay to the Insurer such additional premium as the Insurer would reasonably have required if the correct and full facts had been disclosed to it.

4.4 The insurance may provide that where any breach of the insurance has prejudiced the Insurer in its handling of any Claim against the Insured, the Insured responsible for such breach shall reimburse to the Insurer the difference between the sum paid by the Insurer in respect of the Claim and the sum which would have been payable in the absence of such prejudice.

- (ii) Claim that has been made against the Insured.

5.3 The Insured shall forward every letter, claim form, application and process to the insurer immediately upon receipt, and shall in all cases upon request give to the insurer such further information and render such assistance as it may reasonably require.

5.4 All such notices shall be given and all such documents forwarded to the insurer at the address given in the Cover Note or at such other address as may be notified to the Insured.

The

Insured shall co-operate with, and provide all reasonable assistance to, the insurer in connection with any Circumstance or Claim notified pursuant to section 5.

The insurer and the Insured shall agree to be bound by the opinion of the Queen's Counsel, which shall be treated as having been given as an expert and not as an arbitrator. Liability for the Queen's Counsel's fee for advising under this paragraph shall lie with the party against whose contention the Queen's Counsel advises.
- 6.4 The Insured shall not settle any claim for indemnity, contribution or recovery, nor surrender any right to the same, without the prior written consent of the Insurer. The Insured shall not admit liability for any Claim or incur any costs or expenses in connection therewith without the prior written consent of the Insurer.

- 6.6 The Insurer shall be entitled to settle any claim without the prior written consent of the Insured if:
- (i) the Insured does not give written notice refusing his consent to a settlement recommended in writing by the Insurer within 28 days (or such shorter period as the Insurer may stipulate where the circumstances require) of the recommendation being sent to the Insured; or
 - (ii) it is not possible or permissible to obtain instructions from the Insured and where the Insurer believes in good faith that settlement is necessary to protect the interests of the Insured and/or the Insurer.
- 6.7 If the Insured refuses to consent to a settlement recommended in writing by the Insurer, the Insurer's liability in connection with the Claim shall not exceed the sum for which it could have been settled and the Defence Costs up to the date when such settlement could have been effected.
- 6.8 If the Insured offers to settle and/or settles any Claim, the Insurer shall be under no liability to indemnify him in respect of that offer and/or settlement or to pay any costs or expenses incurred in connection with the same, unless

 - (ii) (a) the Insured has notified the Insurer in writing of the proposed terms of settlement; and

- 7.1 The insurance must provide cover for no less than the minimum Limit of Cover from time to time prescribed by the BSB until the sixth anniversary of the end of the Period of Insurance in respect of Claims which are made against the Insured arising out of any acts or omissions giving rise to liability which occurred prior to the end of the Period of Insurance unless the Insured or a Successor Practice obtains insurance complying with the minimum terms required by the BSB for the period which immediately follows the period of insurance. In the event of such cover being triggered the Insurer may recover an additional premium in respect thereof. In the event that the Insured or a Successor Practice obtains insurance complying with the minimum terms required by the BSB during the period that the Insurer is providing cover in compliance with this provision, the insurance in compliance with this provision shall cease with effect from the date of inception of such replacement insurance.
- 7.2 The insurance must additionally provide cover for no less than the minimum Limit of Cover from time to time prescribed by the BSB for a period of 30 days following the ending of the Period of Insurance, including in respect of claims which are made against the Insured arising out of any acts or omissions giving rise to liability which occurred within that 30 day period, unless before the end of that 30 day period the Insured or a successor practice obtains insurance complying with the minimum terms required by the BSB or the Insured Practice ceases. For the purposes of 7.1, the Period of Insurance includes this 30 day period where appropriate.

8 DISPUTES AND GOVERNING LAW

- 8.1 The insurance must provide that any difference or dispute (other than one arising pursuant to paragraph 6.3) that may arise between the Insurer and the Insured out of or in connection with the insurance shall be referred to a sole arbitrator, whose decision shall be final and binding. The insurance must provide that English law shall govern the insurance and any arbitration arising pursuant to this paragraph.
- 8.2 The insurance must provide that any provision which is inconsistent with the requirements set out herein shall be severed or rectified so as to comply with the requirements herein unless the provision concerned affords greater protection to the Insured than provided by the requirements herein.
