

SQE preparatory training provision as of 14 July 2020

Providers of SQE1 preparatory training
	Confirmed			Considering			Overall
	Universities	Private sector	Total	Universities	Private sector	Total
Degree integrated SQE1 degrees	15	0	15	8	0	8	23
Optional/additional SQE1 modules (plus those that will lead to a Masters')	4	0	4	2	0	2	6
Stand-alone SQE1 prep	0	2	2	0	20	20	22

Providers of SQE2 preparatory training	Confirmed			Considering			Overall
	Universities	Private sector	Total	Universities	Private sector	Total
	5	5	10	0	23	23	33

Providers of SQE materials for home study	Universities	Private sector	Total
	0	5	5

Additional information

Length of courses

- One non-university provider has stated they will offer two lengths of courses: 10 and 24 weeks for preparation for SQE1, and the same for SQE2.
- Another university provider is considering a 2-month SQE2 training course.
- Degree courses will typically be three years, and Masters' courses 1 year.

Integrated degrees

- Seven providers are planning to launch their SQE integrated degrees in 2021 - six LL.Bs and one LL.M. The LL.Bs will be a third-year variation on the traditional degree, so students will on the traditional degree will be able to choose this in their third year in 2021, and then take SQE1 in 2022. Two providers are planning to launch their SQE integrated LL.B in 2022, with students then able to take SQE1 in 2023. One provider is planning to launch an SQE LL.M. in 2023. The other degree providers were not able to give a launch date.

Private providers

- One private provider has stated they will be offering SQE1 and SQE2 training from 2021.